'A FOREIGN LAND'

MUSICAL DIRECTOR WANTED

GRUFFDOG THEATRE ARE AN AWARD WINNING THEATRE COMPANY LOOKING FOR CREW MEMBERS FOR OUR UPCOMING PRODUCTION, VILAYAT.

ABOUT US

We are an emerging theatre company who tell stories through a distinctive combination of puppetry, clown, physical theatre, live music and text. We enjoy the magical and fantastical and seek to create work that is both aurally and visually beautiful. Last year, we toured the U.K. with our production of Henrik Ibsen's Peer Gynt which won 'Best Theatre Show 2017' at the Buxton Festival Fringe, as well as awards and commendations at the Edinburgh Festival. We are constantly on the look out for new collaborators as we continue to grow in size and experience.

VILAYAT is a devised piece based on true experiences of Indian Soldiers on the Western Front blended with tales of indian mythology and legend. Rehearsals start in July, with our tour beginning in Autumn.

THE ROLE

We are looking for an musical director of South Asian heritage with a background in South Asian music of any genre to work closely with the director, dramaturg, technical director and the devising ensemble to help create the world of VILAYAT.

Your role would involve:

- Regularly attending rehearsals, being a part of the devising process and working very closely with the cast and director
- Shaping the musical style of VILAYAT by stimulating the generation of music in the rehearsal room, developing this music and composing pieces
- Dependent on experience, collaboration with our Associate Musical Director

The role is currently unpaid, with expenses, dependent on funding opportunities over the coming months.
